

President Eisenhower helps his daughter-in-law, Barbara, as she signs the register for State elections at the Barlow fire hall near Gettysburg, Pa. Mrs. Russell Durbrow, an elections clerk, is at right.—AP Wirephoto.

Quick Flight Lets President Cast His Vote

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Nov. 3 (AP).—President Eisenhower flew here today to vote in State and county elections.

He wouldn't say whether he voted the straight G. O. P. ticket, but chances were good that he did.

Mr. Eisenhower, accompanied by his son, John Eisenhower, made a quick trip here by helicopter from Langley, Va., where the President participated in the dedication of new quarters of the Central Intelligence Agency.

They landed at the Firemen's Hall in Cumberland Township, five miles outside Gettysburg, at 12:30 p.m. E.S.T. and 10 minutes later had voted and were on their way back to Washington where they arrived.

DOCUMENT NO. _____
 NO CHANGE IN CLASS ☐
 X DECLASSIFIED
 CLASSIFICATION TO: TS S C

AUTH: HR 73-2
 DATE 28 APR 1981 REVIEWER: 029725

After marking his ballot, Mr. Eisenhower smilingly dodged a reporter's inquiry as to whether he voted Republican down the line.

"Now that's a good question," the President said as he strolled off.

Mrs. Eisenhower did not accompany the President from